BOUNDARY WATERS MUSKY CLUB

February 13th, 2014---For Immediate Release

The Boundary Waters Musky Club will be holding its 6th annual Expo and Annual Meeting on Saturday, February 22nd, at the Econo Lodge in Iron Mountain, Michigan. The event will feature a tackle swap, prize raffles, and a number of guest speakers. The public is welcome to attend and FREE door prizes will be given away! Speakers run from roughly 11-4 CST with the Annual Meeting of the Club to follow. This year's speaker lineup will include:

Aquatic Invasive Species Expert Ann Hruska---11 a.m. CST

Trends and concerns with area aquatic invasive species and ways anglers can help reduce the spread.

MI DNR Regional Fisheries Supervisor Jessica Mistak---12:15 CST

Current and future muskellunge management issues in Upper Michigan. Stocking updates and partnership opportunities.

WI DNR Fisheries Biologist Greg Matzke 1:15 CST

Current and future muskellunge management issues in NE Wisconsin. Stocking updates and partnership opportunities.

BWMC V.P. Benji Wood 2:00 CST

Club updates and overview of 2013 accomplishments.

 Guide & Tournament Pro Captain Jeff Van Remortel---Featured Speaker 3:00 CST

Strategies on the water from one of the most successful musky anglers in the country. Jeff is the winner of the 2012 Alliance National Championship, where he set a record with 6 fish caught in the largest musky tournament in the world. He also had roughly 200 muskies in his boat over the last two years and will talk about strategies for targeting the apex predators. An accomplished all-around hunter and fisherman, Captain Jeff will share video of several catches that took place in 2013. He is a can't miss speaker for both novice and advanced muskellunge anglers.

An annual membership to the Boundary Waters Musky Club is $10 for an individual or $15 for a family. Dinner will be provided for all members around 5 p.m. CST, and new members who sign up that day will be welcome to stay. Rooms will be available at a discounted rate at the Econolodge (906) 776-8000.

Any questions on the event can be directed to BWMC Vice President Benji Wood at (906) 221-7982.
